Three OOU Students awarded Scholarship by P.W. Nigeria

The students are Messrs Ayodele, Damilola Oluwadolapo; Akinoshio, Raheem Taiwo and Akinyeami, Tobi George. The award will cover the next three sessions commencing from 2014/2015 session.

The Acting Dean, Students Affairs Prof. M.O. Arikewuyo, has announced the award of scholarship to three brilliant but indigent students of OOU by P. W. Nigeria, a Civil and Building Contractor.

The Dean who received the award from the company has since forwarded it to the beneficiaries and written a letter of appreciation to the company on behalf of the University.

The annual carnival of JAMB UTME activities began in OOU on March 10, 2015. The activities were smooth and orderly.

Above, to the left and bottom pictures reflect the peaceful atmosphere that pervaded the exercise now in its fourth day.
History was made on Thursday 5th March 2015 when the First Quarter 2015 SIWES Zonal Supervision Meeting was held at Olabisi Onabanjo University, Ago-Iwoye.

The programme was flagged off by the Vice-Chancellor ably represented by his deputy, Prof. Adewale Sule-Odu.

The Event was chaired by the Deputy Director/Area Manager ITF Abeokuta, Mrs Adesola Taiwo. Matters discussed included:

1. Payment of SIWES Student Allowance.
2. Workplan for 2015 Institution SIWES Orientation.
3. 2015 Retreat discussion for SIWES Directors/Coordinators.
4. SIWES Activities Quarterly Reports from Institutions and ITF.
As part of the new things happening in OOU, a new 200-bed hostel for female students was declared open by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Adewale Sule-Odu and assisted by some other members of the management.

A facility tour of the well equipped hostel followed the ribbon cutting exercise.
